RESUME & FILM CREDITS

Joe is an experienced motion picture still photographer who has worked on over sixty film and television projects during his career of more than twenty years. He has worked with top actors and has excellent communication skills to produce striking results. Joe is especially skilled at creating powerful and evocative gallery images when shooting cast 'specials' away from the set.

Joe has been working with History Channel (A&E Networks) for over a decade, and his work includes drama documentaries like America: The Story of the US, Mankind: The Story of All of Us, and The Bible. Recently, he worked on a new series with History Channel that highlights four of the most notable American presidents.

Joe has travelled extensively, staying for extended periods in countries like the United Kingdom, Germany, Hungary, Spain, Morocco, China, and South Africa.

Joe's British-based television drama series projects come from his extensive client base in London. His clients include production companies such as Nutopia, Endor Productions, Carnival Films & New Pictures, and publicists Ian Johnson, Victoria Brooks, Richard Dobbs, Thom Will & Lis Clucas.

Joe's work has been recognized with numerous accolades, including cover images and editorials for industry publications like Empire magazine. He had an exhibition at the Highline Studios in New York featuring his iconic images from the Emmy-nominated biblical series The Bible & Son of God produced by Mark Burnett and Roma Downey.

Joe is based in both South Africa and Europe and holds an EU Passport (Netherlands citizenship). He is available to travel to any destination and meet any production demand.
